"Because of the dedication of our 625,000 active and reserve sailors and civilians, and their families, the Navy and our primary joint partner, the U.S. Marine Corps, remain a vital part of our national security."

Admiral Jonathan Greenert, USN
Chief of Naval Operations

UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY MISSION

To develop midshipmen morally, mentally, and physically and to imbue them with the highest ideals of duty, honor and loyalty in order to graduate leaders who are dedicated to a career of naval service and have potential for future development in mind and character to assume the highest responsibilities of command, citizenship, and government.

The admissions process ensures that entering midshipmen have the capability to meet the academic and military challenges of the Naval Academy. More than 85 percent of those entering the Academy successfully complete the four year program.
